21/36 REPORTS

21/36.1 Police Report:

- A newsletter had been received and forwarded. It was noted the speed watch van had recently visited, Cllr Hughes requested that the Police were thanked for attending, and to request another visit between 7.30 and 8am.

21/36.2 Somerset County Council:
Recent press releases had been forwarded

21/36.3 Somerset West and Taunton Council
Cllr Morgan gave a verbal update of the Local Government restructure, changing to Unitary.

21/37 Correspondence Log: (full list pre-circulated)
It was resolved to note the correspondence log.

21/37.1 Local Government reorganisation in Somerset

21/37.2 Future Parish Elections – SALC had requested views on whether the Town and Parish Elections should be held in 2023 or moved forward one year to 2022, to be in line with County elections. Members agreed they should be moved to 2022, as this would be most economical.

21/37.3 It was resolved to note the email from a Parishioner regarding concern of speeding and lack of visibility on Weacombe Road. The Parish had already made representation requesting a reduction in speed limit, which County had declined. Their comments had been forwarded to District and County Councillors.

21/37.4 Community Grants from the Clarks Foundation would be forwarded for inclusion in the Staple Diet.
